

LUNCHEON FOR THE BOYER FAMILY

The museum board members and volunteers hosted a luncheon on May 23rd, for the family of Dr. Harold L. Boyer. The widow of Dr. Boyer, Judy Boyer and a long time friend, JoAnn Clow, his daughter, Mary Elizabeth Boyer Martinez and her husband Grady Smith, were guests of honor.

Following the luncheon, Dr. Joe B. Hall shared authentic stories of old time country doctors . . . their lives and experiences from sources gleamed through his video recordings of members of their families, patients and associates. He later conducted video interviews with Judy Boyer and Mary Elizabeth Martinez to include memoirs of Dr. Harold Boyer in the museums collection.
